

A reflexive pronoun refers to a noun or another pronoun and indicates that the same person or thing is involved. An intensive pronoun adds emphasis to a noun or another pronoun.

He surprised himself by breaking the home-run record. (reflexive)

Leo himself prepared the main course. (intensive)

	SINGULAR	PLURAL
First person	myself	ourselves
Second person	yourself	yourselves
Third person	himself, herself, itself	themselves

Exercise 2 Tick whether the pronoun is a reflexive pronoun or an intensive pronoun.

1. She helped herself by finishing her homework early.
2. The puppy scared itself by watching its shadow.
3. You yourselves can lead the singing tonight.
4. He bought himself a computer at the garage sale.
5. I myself forgot to bring the luggage.
6. They voted for the unknown candidate themselves.
7. You let yourself eat too much chocolate.
8. Bonita composed the music playing in the background herself.
9. We will learn the new dance ourselves.
10. Did you yourself advance in the standings after the first round of play?
11. They allowed themselves plenty of time to reach the arena.
12. He himself assured us it would not rain on our picnic.
13. The train itself seemed to stop suddenly.
14. We promised ourselves we would see that movie Friday night.
15. You have visited Virginia many times yourself.